Ayoub is among the top students in his class and he is always improving. Ayoub is engaged with his lessons and always comes prepared with homework completed. He is a well-behaved, attentive student with a great attitude to learning.

Ayoub speaks with confidence to the group. He is now ready to start thinking in English and answer more quickly. He remembers new words and reads very well. His book work is quick and complete, and he rarely makes mistakes. He is easily able to follow the flow of natural conversation and understand complex dialogue involving multiple participants. He listens attentively and always understands what I'm talking about.

Ayoub should be pleased with his progress and understanding of the lesson content, as he is doing very well. He has demonstrated a thorough understanding of the English topics we have covered in class.

It's fun to teach Ayoub because I see he is always improving and learning new things.

Great attitude, Ayoub!
