Khalil is a good student overall. He is doing very well in class. I expect him to continue to do well in his studies. He enjoys participating and almost always completes his homework. His work is neatly and accurately done and he is a polite conscientious pupil.

Khalil speaks with confidence to the group. His English skills in vocabulary are good, and somewhat improving. He has very good pronunciation skills. His reading ability is progressing at a pace that is appropriate to this level. He has continued to improve his reading abilities through her diligent efforts. Khalil has learned a lot of vocabulary and grammar in the past few months so his comprehension is much better now. His writing skills are very good for his level. He is able to follow the flow of natural conversation with some effort and understand simple dialogue. Khalil demonstrates a great understanding of new material by always providing an answer to the teacher's questions. He has shown a solid grasp of the English topics we have been studying. So far, he has progressed very well in the class. I think with his positive attitude Khalil can make an added effort and succeed at learning excellent English skills. I am sure he can do it.
