Mohamed has a great personality and a positive attitude towards learning English. Mohamed is a friendly student with an excellent attitude to study. He enjoys participating and almost always completes his homework. He is not afraid to speak up in class, and he gets along well with the other students. He appears to have quite a strong vocabulary, and his answers to questions are usually accurate. He has good English vocabulary skills.

I am always impressed with Mohamed's reading ability, especially his pronunciation of unfamiliar words. His writing skills are very good for his level. In listening comprehension exercises and activities, he does incredibly well.

Mohamed demonstrates a great understanding of new material by always providing an answer to the teacher's questions.

Mohamed has exhibited a detailed understanding of the English material we have covered in class.

I am confident that Mohamed will become an excellent English speaker if he continues to work hard. Keep up the good work, Mohamed!
