Mahdi is respectful and takes his studies seriously. He is an asset to the class and continues to perform very well although he can be forgetful at times.

Mahdi displays good study skills in class and at home. His pronunciation is very clear and easy to understand. Mahdi is probably the most accurate speaker in the class who reads new words and phrases well.

While he has some difficulty with more complex words, I am satisfied with his reading progress. Mahdi is a very knowledgeable student with very good reading and grammar comprehension.

In listening comprehension exercises and activities, he usually does well. He is easily able to follow the flow of natural conversation and understand complex dialogue involving multiple participants. Mahdi has proven to have a thorough understanding of the English topics we have covered in class.

If he continues to improve at this rate he should have much success with his English studies. He is making steady progress in literacy and has started to enjoy his growing achievements in English.

I enjoy having Mahdi in my class.
