Yessine is an energetic, outgoing student and he always seems to have fun in class. He is a friendly, cheerful student who seems to enjoy classes and generally gets along well with the other students. Yessine has a positive influence on class activities and likes to lead the other students. He has a great deal to say and loves to get to work. His pronunciation could use a little more work, but it is constantly improving.

Yessine has tried very hard to overcome his speaking shyness and is doing much better. I am always impressed with his reading ability, especially his tone and inflection. He has no problems reading at an appropriate pace and flow for this level. He spells well and is good at word recognition. He has demonstrated a strong improvement in his writing skills recently. He is able to listen and understand with ease. In listening exercises and activities, he does reasonably well. I am happy with his general progress and understanding of the materials we are studying. Yessine has demonstrated an intrinsic grasp of the English topics we have covered in class. Yessine finds English challenging but has worked hard to maintain good progress. He is continuing his efforts and is consistently performing at a very good level.
