It's a pleasure to teach Youssef.

Youssef quickly learns everything that is presented to him. He is an excellent student, and his English abilities reflect that.

Youssef is a quiet but very capable student. His pronunciation is very clear and easy to understand. His English vocabulary skills are good and continue to improve.

He has almost no problems reading at an appropriate speed and level for this class. He has continued to improve his reading abilities through his diligent efforts.

Youssef has very good grammar knowledge and vocabulary skills. He is approaching the point where listening transitions from an active skill requiring effort and translation to a subconscious activity that is second nature.

Youssef has an excellent understanding of the materials we have studied until now. He is achieving great success with English.

Youssef is a good learner, so these skills should keep on improving rapidly.
