Yassine Souissi is a quiet, but friendly student who is always attentive and well behaved in class.

Yassine is a model student, who is performing at the top of his ability. He makes an effort to participate when he can. Yessine displays good study skills in class and at home. He always makes a big effort to complete the class work and homework carefully and accurately and his grammar and vocabulary are excellent. When he speaks, his pronunciation is clear and he often uses full sentences rather than just one or two words, which is unusual for his level and demonstrates excellent language ability. He is good enough to read English books at home and I encourage him to do so.

Yessine has very strong vocabulary and writing skills and asks appropriate questions. He listens attentively and usually understands what I'm explaining to the class. I am impressed with his general progress and understanding of the materials we are studying. Yessine has demonstrated a key understanding of the English topics we have been studying.
